Laura Dekker Solo Sailor Extraordinaire

In August 2009 Laura Dekker, then aged 13, announced her plan to become the youngest person to circumnavigate the globe single-handed. Amid a mealy of media and well wishers she achieved her goal when she arrived in Simpson Bay Sint Maarten 21st January 2012 aged 16. She then turned around and sailed back to NZ arriving in Whangarei 2nd September 2012.

The Squadron, in association with the Classic Yacht Association, is very fortunate to have Laura Dekker as a guest speaker talking about her amazing around the world solo feat. The evening includes a buffet dinner.

Friday 22nd March, 1830hrs.

Cost: $45 per person. A $5 donation is also welcome towards the maintenance of Laura's boat 'Guppy'.

To book please phone the RNZYS Reception (09) 360 6800 or reception@rnzys.org.nz.
