Annual Accounts:

The Annual Accounts for the year ended 30th June 2018 were prepared by Robert Taylor of William Buck Ltd, Chartered Accountants, had been reviewed and approved by the Executive Committee, and were also circulated at the meeting.

Rob explained the accounts to the members present, noting the Regatta had almost broken even, the income from the Heritage Landing was pleasing and the lack of income from the Vessel Register was a result of the advertisers not being invoiced.

In a response to questions called for from the floor:

- (i) David Cook queried the difference in the revenue between 2017 and 2018. It was explained that funding for the 2017 event had been sought through the Tino Rawa Trust whereas in 2018 it had been applied for by the CYA.
David asked for a more elaborate account of the expenses given it was such a large amount to be spent on a three day Regatta.
Peter reiterated that the overall loss was kept to a minimum thanks to the reimbursement by Tony Stevenson, and the incoming committee would be reviewing the organisation of the Regatta for 2019.
- (ii) Alan Houghton queried the lack of advertising revenue from the Vessel Register. Peter advised the register was an important part of the CYA given it reached every member and while it appeared the advertisers had been supplied with a free advertisement it was also regarded as a thank you to those who had participated in the past and in the Regatta.
The incoming committee would be reviewing future publications and decide on how it would be funded.

It was then moved 'that the Annual Accounts be received and adopted'
