

CYA Social Night

6.30pm on Tuesday 12 April 2011

Venue: Royal NZ Yacht Squadron, Westhaven

'Old Movies Night'

Come and join us for a nostalgic voyage back in time.....

Capt Irving Johnson who sailed on the clipper ships as a young man and took some early film footage of the 'Peking' rounding the horn in a full gale, and some of himself training to be a seaman by standing on top of 50' power poles!

He then narrated the film footage later in life and its absolutely fantastic.....

Peter Mulgrew....some short clips of Peter Mulgrew's voyage to Cape Horn circa the 60's

18 footer racing in 1948 - a marvellous short video of 18 footer racing on the Waitemata in 1948 plus footage of some of our current fleet racing including Rainbow, Rawene and others

More to come.....time permitting! Do come and enjoy this marvellous old footage with us, we'd love to see you there

CYA and Royal NZ Yacht Squadron partners, families and friends all very welcome

Register of Wooden Boats

The publishers of 'Wooden Boat' magazine & the on-line web based 'Wooden Boat Forum' have produced since 1993 a 'Register of Wooden Boats', with approx 6,000+ current listings. Originally limited to North America it is now open to the world. Check it out at: <http://www.woodenboat.com/rwb/>

Quote (part) below from the Registers home page:

"Purpose:

The Register of Wooden Boats lists information on wooden boats 20' and above in overall length.

Keeping track of boats and yachts is a tradition dating back to the late 1800's, first with Manning's Register, then with Lloyd's. Researchers, museums, and boat owners have found the information contained in these registers of great value in tracking historically significant watercraft, pinning down their particulars, and in general learning more about the boat or boats that are of particular interest to them.

Our mission is solely to keep track of all the wooden boats we possibly can."

We have been approached by WBF to extend the offer to list New Zealand vessels in the Register - already there are numerous Kiwi boats listed.

If you have any questions concerning the Register, feel free to contact the Wooden Boat people direct (email rwb@woodenboat.com)

It only takes a few minutes to register & will help beat the drum for the growing awareness of the classic fleet down under.

For Sale:

Mallana – 1907 Gaff rigged, double ended ketch designed & built by Frederick Moore in Tasmania

LOA: 43' Beam: 11'6"

She has four spacious berths, two on either side, a drop-sided dining table in polished Tasmanian Oak with fold-down Western Red Cedar benches on either side. There is a three-burner stainless steel galley stove with drop-down oven, a stainless galley sink and a food preparation area with plenty of storage for crockery and cutlery.

Mallana is listed on the Australian Register of Historic Vessels.

Asking price: $100,000 but owner is prepared to consider offers in that vicinity. More important than money for him will be the knowledge that her new owner will be someone able to give her the kind of love and attention that has been lavished on her, guaranteeing her historic integrity and her continuation as a classic vessel.
