

THE CLASSIC YACHT ASSOCIATION
OF NEW ZEALAND

Sheerlines

August 2015

The 20th CYA Annual General Meeting produced some key changes to the management of the 2015-2016 season with the election of five new committee members.

The 2015 – 2016 Committee is as follows:

Chairperson: Rod Marler

Vice Chairperson: Peter Mence

Yacht Captain: James Mortimer

Launch Captain: Nathan Herbert

General Committee:

Iain Lowrie

Adrian Sully

Guy King

A big welcome to you all!

Stepping down from the committee are some long standing members who have made huge contributions to the association as a whole:

Steve Cranch: Vice Chairman for the last season and previously long standing Chairman; instrumental in the establishment of the Heritage Landing, the execution of Race Management as well as dealing with the complexities intrinsic with managing an association.

Alan Houghton: Launch Captain extraordinaire; who has gained prominence with increasing the classic launch fleet from its small beginnings to the magnitude that it has reached today; his clever and creative advertising flyers as well as the development and production of the Classic Register.

Dan Renall: Yacht Captain, who has taken the helm with enthusiasm and gusto, making for some great seasons sailing, despite the cyclonic weather that has put stop to some key events. Dan has also been responsible for the revamp of our website and, once his busy life has settled down...will be back!

Jason Prew: Long standing general committee member and a previous Yacht

Captain who has always worked in the background, managing the handicapping, organising boats for assisting events and working bees, as well as being the go to person for website and computer woes.

Bruce Tantrum: Long standing general committee member as well as ex Vice Chairman who is renowned for his historical input on vessel classification and constitutional issues.

Barb Cooke: A relative newcomer to the general committee, but one who has made a huge impact on the social scene with her organisation of multiple social events, which are always embellished by her generous spirit.

Chris Leech: Another relative newcomer to the committee, but someone who has been quietly working in the background, producing a detailed trophy register as well as improving the CYA's database.

Many thanks to the past committee for all their efforts and dedication, in making the Classic Yacht Association what it is today.
