Wooden Boat Magazine features NZ Vessels

The July/August 2011 Wooden boat magazine, no. 221 on pages 60-69 has an excellent article entitled:

The Kauri Legacy : New Zealand's enduring classics and the wood that built them by Bruce Stannard, with colour photographs by Ivor Wilkins.

Featured in the article are THELMA, WAITANGI, RAINBOW, PRIZE, AKARANA, JESSIE LOGAN, NGATIRA and RAWENE along with references to RAWHITI and its restoration programme and of course some of the extensive history of the kauri forests of Northland.

The boat builders Robert Logan and Charles Bailey and the yachts that they designed and built are described and a fantastic photograph of RAINBOW sailing past Bean Rock on Auckland Harbour features on the cover. Stannard has interviewed Harold Kidd, Chad Thompson, Steve Horsely and Robert Brooke for the article and discusses their individual passion for classic yachts built from Kauri.

Wooden Boat magazine is held in the Bill Laxon Maritime Library at Voyager New Zealand Maritime Museum.

The above information was kindly supplied by Marleene Boyd, Voyager NZ Maritime Museum
