X Class Meeting at Whangateau Traditional Boatyard on Saturday 3 May

From Russell Ward:

I have recently bought the X class Gallina who has spent all her life in the deep south and the last 30+ years ashore. She is deliciously original down to the cotton sails.

She is now at the Whangateau Traditional Boatyard and has been introduced to the saltwater once again. She seems to like it.

We are hosting a gathering to welcome her to our waters. We are just going to talk boats. You can look at the boats presently at the yard; sail row and/or paddle and generally forget about politicians and the woes of the economy and all that. We also have a navy whaler, a zeddie and various other boats to play with should you so desire.

I will provide sustenance and libations for those who need such things.

Time	Mid afternoon
Date	Saturday 3 May
High tide	1750

Please would you email me if your want to come so I can organise the libations etc.
