You are invited to the first Fairway Bay CYA Event!

- Arrive Saturday in your classic boat to moor in the basin at the top of Fairway Bay arm of Gulf Harbour. There will be a heavy mooring in the centre with a heavy line strung to the dock, to which you can easily tie your stern and raft up to other vessels, some of whom will deploy an anchor for an easy 'Mediterranean Moor' arrangement (bring a tender)
- Join us for a shore BBQ in the evening, with sausages, bread and the basics provided. Feel free to bring your own food also. No BYO ashore but there is a great bar with $5 happy hour from 5 to 6 pm!
- Sunday is the great Hobbs Wharf Market ashore. Have a look around and perhaps a walk to Hobbs Bay or out to Pinecrest Drive then depart for home in the afternoon.

As usual, if you cannot make it by boat or are not a boat owner – feel free to join us by car.

Please RSVP to Nathan Herbert – Launch Captain by Wed 11 Nov so that the BBQ can be arranged.

See you there!

Lexia – 1904 8.5 m Bailey Keeler
'The 1904, Bailey (Jnr) built 8 metre gaff staysail sloop LEXIA is for sale due to owner's declining health. The boat is of carvel construction on bent frames. She is in good condition. She is fitted with a galley containing a sink and gas stove, a chemical toilet, VHF radio approx. 5 years old, echo sounder approx. 4 years old, and a 2 cylinder fresh water cooled Yanmar engine. The electrical circuit is split- house and starting with two batteries. She will sleep two persons comfortably. The keel bolts were replaced 2003. The spars are of Oregon pine and kauri, varnished. The sails are in good condition with a spare main sail. Standing rigging is of stainless steel wire. Bailey's were in competition to the Logan Brothers, who, without such competition, could not have become the premier boat builders of the time. LEXIA is the 7th oldest boat in the Auckland Classic Yacht fleet, and should be preserved for future generations.'
