

October Club Night

Tuesday 10 October 6.30pm
Royal NZ Yacht Squadron, Westhaven

Guest Speaker: John Lidgard

Boatbuilder, designer and sailor, John Lidgard needs little introduction to CYA members.

After a lifetime building and repairing boats, John understands the issues associated with owning a classic yacht or launch. He's designed many highly successful yachts and launches, as well as clocking up in excess of 200,000 nautical miles offshore racing and cruising.

Such in-depth boating wisdom from someone of John's experience is a rare treat - don't miss this event.

A warm welcome is extended to all CYA, RNZYS members and partners

Excerpt from Sail-World.com:

The patriarch of one of New Zealand's great yachting families, John Lidgard, has written a book on his, and his family's sailing history, experiences and successes. It will be available in the next week or two.

Its title 'It's in the Blood', is literally true for the Lidgard family. To buy, email Duthie Lidgard: duthie@internationalmarine.co.nz or send cash/cheque to John Lidgard, 54 Vinograd Drive, Te Atatu Peninsula, Auckland.
$35 each or $30 for two copies or more.

Sheerlines goes out at the beginning of every month and we'd be delighted to include regular updates from around the country.

So do let us know what's happening

Rescued Vessels

Vessels awaiting adoption into good homes.

1. COLONIST a 33ft centreboard cutter built by Fred Mann in 1911. Great history.

2. A 38ft x 8ft 6in 1892 Robert Logan-built yacht of impeccable provenance but requiring total restoration. Ideal for a serious syndicate.

Two Centreboarders desperately needing a home

18 footer: Atalanta V57 built by Billy Rogers in 1934

Idle Along: Cindy IA 10

Contact Harold Kidd at 09 444-1279 home or 09 443-7433 bus.

HAZEL: a 1910 Collings & Bell (featured in Harold & Robins Vintage Launches Book, pg 37)

Is in need of a new owner.

She is also in need of a major restoration that I would love to be a part of

I am happy to answer any questions from anyone that may be interested in a project.
