Baden Pascoe author of Launching Dreams has captured a sumptuous pictorial and historical record that celebrates the life of Auckland Businessman and renowned boatbuilder Percy Vos.

Baden will be officially launching his book at Waterfront Auckland's office mid October, which was the original site of Percy Vos' business. The launch will include a display of the 1926 skiff built by Percy and his staff as well as other Vos memorabilia.

Confirmation of time and date will be sent out to all CYA members as soon as it is available.

Auckland to Melbourne

A team of intrepid CYA travellers will take to the air heading for Melbourne to once again participate in the Annual Cup Regatta, hosted by the Classic Yacht Association of Australia. The team is coordinated by Iain Valentine who will be leaving with a team of 12 others this year determined to enjoy the challenge of competing against and with our neighbours across the Tasman in their own fine classics. For the last seven years, the Australians have proven to be great hosts, ensuring that the camaraderie of the opposing nations is nurtured. Here's to a great Regatta. For any last minute enquiries please contact Iain on: p. 021 377 706 e. iain.valentine@extra.co.nz All event information pop onto to: www.classic-yacht.asn.au

Sydney to Auckland Tall Ships Regatta 2013

A fleet of Tall Ships and hundreds of sailors will cross the Tasman for a three-day festival to be hosted by the Voyager New Zealand Maritime Museum.

Picton Castle under way

Labour Weekend will see the flotilla sail into Auckland Harbour. The ten ships will be visible from Waitemata Harbour and led by the much-loved Spirit of New Zealand best known for youth voyages. The fun four days will start with the ships' arrival on Friday. Guided by Maori waka; the Harbour will become a vantage point for those wanting to view the historical boats.

On Saturday a march will have crew head to the waterfront from Wynyard Quarter. The www.classicyacht.org.nz powhiri welcoming the crew will take place at the Cloud kick-starting a festival-like atmosphere. The public will be free to hop on board and see the ships up close on Saturday 26 and Sunday 27, 10am-4pm.

A full naval salute will be given as the ships depart Orakei Wharf at 1pm Monday.
