Cruising the Waterways of France with Tony Kendall

For many, cruising the waterways of France or anywhere in Europe is on the 'love to do list'. For Tony Kendall this has become a reality, having spent many years exploring the diverse network of waterways that weave their way through the French countryside and cities.

Come and enjoy an evening with Tony as he shares his experiences on the water; the food, wine, people and culture as well as learn about getting about by boat in France. Tony Kendall, father to Olympians Bruce and Barbara clearly has the ability to instil the passion and enthusiasm for the great outdoors and will no doubt prove to be just as inspirational for you.
